Industry and Market Data, page iii

1. We note the statement that "there can be no assurance as to the accuracy or completeness" of information. Please delete as this is an inappropriate disclaimer to the investor's ability to rely on the disclosure.

2. In the last sentence on page 4, please briefly define "deposit listing services" and clarify whether these could include brokered deposits.

3. Please revise page 4 or where appropriate to provide a separate discussion for each loan category in your portfolio and discuss the risks that are unique to each category.

4. Where you identify capital and regulatory ratios and your actual ratios, please revise to cross reference to the tabular disclosure provided elsewhere, for example on page 123.

5. We note the discussion of cybersecurity on page 13. Please revise here or where appropriate to clarify the nature of the board s role in overseeing the company s cybersecurity risk management, the manner in which the board administers this oversight function and any effect this has on the board's leadership structure.

The expected replacement or discontinuation of London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) as a benchmark..., page 31

6. We note in the last sentence of "Recent Accounting Pronouncements" on page 102 you state, "The Company has limited exposure to the number of loans tied to LIBOR and the loan documents allow for the index to move to an alternative rate if the index currently in place, LIBOR, no longer exists. For any new loans, the Company is using an alternative rate as an index." Please revise this risk factor to be consistent with the financial statement disclosures. Additionally, please advise us of the status of your efforts to modify the 7 loans indexed to LIBOR and tell us their approximate dollar amount. Managements Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, page 37

7. We note in the final sentence on page 1 that, "...additional employees and infrastructure are expected to be needed to manage the increasing customer relationships that would come with sustained growth." We also note the statement in the second from last paragraph of the carryover risk factor on pages 33-34 that, "Our investment in compliance with existing and evolving regulatory requirements will result in increased administrative expenses that we did not previously incur. These costs may materially increase our general and administrative expenses." Please revise the MD&A to discuss material trends, demands, commitments, events and uncertainties that could impact the company's liquidity, financial condition or operating results. Executive Incentive Compensation, page 69

8. We note disclosure of the incentive weighting and amounts of actual incentive payments for 2022. Please revise to further clarify and quantify the targets for each metric that were used to calculate the actual incentive amounts paid. See Item 402(o) of Regulation S-K.

9. Please revise to reconcile the number of authorized common shares identified here (20 million) with the amount in your articles of incorporation filed as Exhibit 3.1 (500,000). The series preferred amounts also do not reconcile. Please revise accordingly.
Item 13. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data
Consolidated Statements of Income, page 89

10. Please revise the face of your consolidated statements of income to comply with the presentation requirements under Rule 9-04 of Regulation S-X. For example, we note that the line item for Provision for (recapture of) loan losses should be presented below the line item Net interest income and should also present a subtotal for net interest income after provision for (recapture of) loan losses.

11. Please revise to disclose your accounting policy for charging off loans. To the extent that there are different criteria used by loan portfolio segment or other relevant factors, describe as applicable.

General

12. In light of recent market events and activities within the banking sector, please revise Business, Risk Factors, Management's Discussion and Analysis and other sections, where appropriate, to address any material impact these events and activities have had on your financial condition, operations, customer base, liquidity, capital position and risk profile. Provide quantitative and qualitative disclosure as appropriate and clarify what actions management is undertaking in response to the market events and activities.

13. In this regard, examples of expanded disclosure may include but are not limited to the following:

Provide an update on your liquidity management and capital position as of a more recent date. Include qualitative and quantitative information about your cash position, investment securities, deposits, borrowings and sources of available but unused borrowings. For example, we note that you had gross unrealized losses of $165.8 million on AFS securities at December 31, 2022. Any such revised disclosures should include identifying and discussing material stress testing scenarios, metrics or measures that you have utilized to evaluate, monitor and manage your liquidity and capital position; Discuss material trends and recent activities, as of a more recent date, in your deposits balance, such as deposit inflows, withdrawals, uninsured vs. insured deposits and average rates offered by type of deposit (e.g., demand deposits, time deposits, etc.);

Disclose and discuss any significant market, industry or individual concentrations in your deposit balance and how you manage the concentration risk, if applicable. For example, revise to disclose if there are any significant industries or other concentrations within the population of depositors with any deposits in excess of the FDIC insurance limit of $250,000; and In regard to your Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk, expand your discussion of interest rate risk and interest rate sensitivity to help readers better understand and assess potential impacts to various financial statement line items impacting your financial condition and results of operations.

14. We note the statement on page 59 that your Asset/Liability Committee manages interest rate sensitivity by changing the mix, pricing and re-pricing characteristics of its assets and liabilities, through the management of its investment portfolio, its offerings of loan and selected deposit terms and through wholesale funding. Explain and quantify the existence of material asset liability mismatch, if applicable, for the periods presented or as of a more recent date, and discuss how the ALCO considers, measures, and manages mismatch and related risks, including what information it has considered related to recent market events. Please disclose whether you have a Chief Risk Officer, which individuals or committees are responsible for the risk management practices referenced on pages 18 and 28, and disclose the frequency of meetings by the relevant individuals and/or committees.

We remind you that the company and its management are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of their disclosures, notwithstanding any review, comments, action or absence of action by the staff.

You may contact Michael Henderson at 202-551-3364 or Cara Lubit at 202-551-5909 if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters. Please contact Todd K. Schiffman at 202-551-3491 or James Lopez at 202-551-3536 with any other questions.
